Colleagues,

~

Thank you very much for the productive call toinight and the excellent work together on this emergency towing strategy.

~

Talal,

We briefed our Mino who is going back to yours suggesting the reframing of the letter to Alberta as we discussed (our mino really liked the reframing, and was keen to be able to say there has been progress since the letter was written and the most effective next steps are Alta's: by copying the Ontario emergency provisions they can incent most of the drivers to simply drive their vehicle away instead of getting it seized).

The one additional point that came up is that there is a desire for the letter to indicate the GOC will re-imburse Alta for the cost of the tow trucks it is buying.

~

We have settled on a good strategy, and next steps.

~

I hope everybody can get a bit of down time tonight.

~

Cheers,

~

Michael

Colleagues,

\~

The purpose of this email is to suggest we have a short call this evening to take stock of really good work by folks at PSPC, RCMP, TC and PC, along with provincial officials like Alta. And lock in urgent next steps, reflecting the fact we will need to update tomorrow.

\~

I know we are all furiously busy, but hoping a 30 minute call around say 7:30 PM? Please let me know if that works, and if there are others who need to be on the call. Dora in my office will organize.
